Film Festival

2019 Entry Form

The 2nd Annual North Jersey Human Rights Film Festival is a juried film festival held at The Unitarian Society of Ridgewood, NJ.

From the time of the Unitarian Society of Ridgewood's founding in 1896, social justice has been a cornerstone of our congregational life. In keeping with this tradition, the films shown at the North Jersey Human Rights Film Festival will be grounded in the principle that all people have inherent power, dignity and rights.

Entries may focus on any theme that fosters social justice and works toward a world free from oppression, including (but not limited to) Economic Justice, Education Justice, Environmental Justice, Immigration Justice, LGBTQI Rights, Racial Justice, Reproductive Justice and Voting Rights.

Festival Dates/Three showings:

Friday, May 10 at 7pm

Saturday May 11 at 1pm and 7pm
